

Joseph Slawinski's "Communication" (A sgraffito mural)

Slawinski created "Communication" in 1980 which resides on the fourth floor of Thomson Reuters' office in Philadelphia, P.A. "Communication" is a large mural (30 ft. x 8.5 ft) executed in Sgraffito technique. Slawinski is now deceased but he was then one of the few remaining artists in the world who could be considered masters of sgraffito - a technique which dates back to the Etruscans.
